The Rutherford County Council on Aging

The Rutherford County Council on Aging is a non-profit, voluntary association formed in 2000 to sponsor and promote workshops, seminars and conferences in order to educate, communicate and disseminate information and ideas in pursuing its goal to assist the elderly. The Council will communicate directly with the Greater Nashville Regional Council, Area Agency on Aging to further its mission in Rutherford County.

COA focuses on seniors through special events throughout the year such as an annual SENIOR EXPO.

COA is represented by a variety of local agencies, who wish to ensure and enhance a better quality of life for senior adults.

COA provides professional and community education, referral services and information sharing
